Our Katrina experience was:

We had two houses. One on 100 Duthu Rd. in Waveland and one in the Kiln. We weren't living in Waveland at the time but all of our stuff on the inside was ruined. Our porch is gone and my dad's mechanic shed fell down on top of a car. Our house was completely ruined. But our house — OVER in the Kiln had little damage. The posts that's holding our porch up was blown away. We stayed in the house in the Kiln on Lawrence-Ladner Rd. during the storm, and it was very scary. We saw trees break all over our yard then my mommy put me and my sisters and brothers in the bath tub with my big Sister Melissa-25 and her baby boy Keegan-5 mths old. She was so scared that we were going to die. she made us sit down in the tub till the storm was over. We are thankful to be alive.
